Why Volunteer?

As a hospice volunteer, you will change the lives of others in amazing ways, every single day.

You can donate as much or as little time as you are able. We offer a variety of volunteer opportunities to suit every personality, talent, and expertise.

You can bring care and love into people's lives, by simply being you. Volunteering your time to those in end-of-life care can be incredibly rewarding, and is an irreplaceable experience in your life and the lives of patients and their families.

All volunteers will learn valuable information about caring for others and the journey of hospice, during our orientation and educational program.
